

Battle against the emperor of Turingen

It looks like the emperor of the neighboring empire Turingen wants to attack Bugmania. It is on you to defend the kingdom.

In order to win this battle you need an army that is exactly 64 monsters large. Right now you already have one group of 30 monsters and another group of 4 monsters.

Because the emperor of Turingen is very powerful you can visit two witches to build your army. And remember: The groups of monsters you start with can also be reproduced in your kingdom. Use that wisely.

Complete the battle plan to defend Bugmania.

Good luck in battle brave leader!
